FAITH SHARING

Leonardo da Vinci had started to work on a large canvas in his studio. For a while he worked at it – choosing the subject, planning the perspective, sketching the outline, applying the colors, with his own inimitable genius. Then suddenly he stopped working on it. Summoning one of his talented students, the master invited him to complete the work. The horrified student protested that he was both unworthy and unable to complete the great painting which his master had begun. But da Vinci silenced him. “Will not what I have done inspire you to do your best?” Jesus our Master began to spread the Good News two thousand years ago by what he said and did, and supremely by what he suffered. Jesus illustrated his message and left us to finish the picture. Will Jesus’ life not inspire us to finish the picture? This is the message of the Ascension

WE DID IT

Our festival is over. It’s too early to say if it was financially successful or not. Of course it is important to us to make some money on such event. But there is even more important achievement. One more time we were working together as one parish family, helping each other, supporting each other. With patience, understanding and simply Christian Love in our hearts. Thank you for being together yesterday. May God bless you and reward you for your hard work!

CLEANING AFTER FESTIVAL

Please come on Tuesday at 4pm to clean our church hall. We have to pack all not sold items into boxes, set the tables, clean the hall. Together we can do it within 2 hours.

FATHER’S DAY LETTER

On June 16, the Holy Mass will be offered for all Fathers, living and deceased. This week you should receive the Father’s Day Letter. Please respond with your Mass request until Friday, June 14th.

Please make a donation to St. Valentine’s Parish in memory or in honor of your Father and make your check payable to St. Valentine’s PNCC.

If you want to offer a Holy Mass for Fathers please make a Mass donation in check payable to Fr. Mariusz. For the collective Mass for many souls, $10 as a Mass stipend, is more than enough. Please be rather more generous making donations to St. Valentine’s Parish to repair our budget. May God bless you and reward you for your generosity. Bóg zapłać!

SOLEMNITY OF PENTECOST

Next Sunday is again a big celebration – Pentecost. This day we call a Birthday of the Church and so indeed it is. The liturgical color of this day is red. Let us come to the church for Mass on that day all dressed in red.

CALENDARIUM

OUR CEMETERY AND PULASKI PARK AFTER STORMS

Many people asked me yesterday the question “Where is Patrik? Why is he not helping us?”

The answer was “Patrik is very busy at the cemetery cleaning after two heavy storms in Bensalem on Wednesday and Thursday.” Yes, again two pretty big thunder storms made a lot of damage to our cemetery trees. Many heavy branches have been broken and fell on the graves. And again, God was very gracious to us, because there is no damage to any tombstone, however Patrik, our caretaker has a lot to do – cutting, chopping, cleaning. Is there any person who would like to help him? Seriously. If yes, please let me know.
