ALL MASSES ARE AVAILABLE ONLINE

Although our Masses are available as multi-platform streaming, I always recommend YouTube as the best Full HD 1080p audio-video quality. Please click the SUBSCRIBE button and the BELL icon next to it to be notified when the live stream is active.

If your internet speed is slow or if you use some older/slow computer/tablet/smartphone the lower quality stream 720p on Facebook will be your better option. Also the reliable live stream is embedded on our webpage www.stvalentinespncc.org (the bottom of home/start page or under the tab Watch YouTube).

FAITH SHARING

Today’s Scripture passages warn us that it is our final decision for or against God, that is, our choosing to obey Him gracefully by doing His will or our choosing to go against His will, which will decide our eternal reward or punishment. As free beings, we are the ones who choose our eternal destiny.

In the first reading, the Lord God, through His prophet, Ezekiel, corrects the Jewish beliefs that children inherit the guilt of their ancestors and are punished for their sins, and that God is more strict than merciful. God explains that His mercy overrules strict justice and that He will punish us only for our sins, not for the sins of our ancestors.

The second reading, Paul’s Letter to the Philippians, affirms the truth that the final choice for God, made by perfect obedience to Him, will be rewarded.

In the parable in today’s Gospel, a man with two sons tells both to go out to work in the vineyard. The first son says he won’t go, but later regrets it and works. The second son says he will go but does not. In each case, it is the final decision that is more important. Jesus teaches through this short parable that repentant tax-collectors and prostitutes, represented by the first son who initially refused to go, will make their way into the Kingdom of God before the chief priests and the elders, represented by the second son in the parable. It is a parable on the necessity of offering a continual “yes” to the saving act of God.

SUNDAY COLLECTION

Parishioners who don't attend Mass in person are still obliged, according to The Constitution of the PNCC, to support the parish weekly. Please mail your Sunday Offering envelopes to Parish Office or donate online using our webpage.

FILM MAKING AND STREAMING TRAINING AVAILABLE FOR VOLUNTEERS

If there is someone among you, who would like to learn from us, me and my wife, and get the new skills of filming and multiplatform streaming, we offer a free training for volunteers, our parishioners and friends, who are willing to help us in our broadcast ministry. Hardware and software study, 1:1 training and practice during live streaming will be an awesome new experience for the young adults. Is the Mass boring for you? Get to work and make it interesting for yourself and others. You don't need to be tech savvy, but some basic knowledge of computer and photography is required.

ANNUAL PULASKI DAY PARADE ON TV 6 ABC

On Sunday, October 4th, between 12:30 and 1 P.M., tune in to see highlights of the Pulaski Day Parade in Philadelphia which will be televised on WPVI-TV 6 ABC.
