FAITH SHARING

The main theme of this Sunday's readings is the warning that the selfish and extravagant use of God's blessings, like wealth, without sharing them with the poor and the needy is a serious sin deserving eternal punishment. Today's readings stress the Covenant responsibility of the rich for the poor, reminding us of the truth that wealth without active mercy for the poor is great wickedness. It warns us against making money the goal of our existence.

Amos, in the first reading, issues a powerful warning to those who seek wealth at the expense of the poor and who spend their time and their money on themselves alone. He prophesies that those rich and self-indulgent people will be punished by God with exile because they don't care for their poor and suffering brothers.

In the second reading, Paul admonishes us to "pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness" – noble goals in an age of disillusionment – rather than riches.

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us a warning, pointing to the destiny of the rich man who neglected his duty to show mercy to poor Lazarus. The rich man was punished, not for having riches, but for neglecting the Scriptures and what they taught on sharing his blessings with the poor.

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

Please bring your pets to our church next Sunday, October 2, for the Blessing of the Animals. They will be blessed right after Mass at 9:30 AM.
